THE BILLIARD TOURNEY.

Dpening of the Three-Ball Tournament for the Championship of the World-Cyrille Dion Defeats Deery Badly-Maurice Baly Takes the Laurels from the Magic Frenchman, Ubassy-A Splendid Audience and Exciting Play.

An audience of 1,500 parsons assumbled last evening at irving Hall to whoess the inauguration of what promises to be the most beliliant tournament at billiards ever played in America, bringing together as it does the six most, renowned masters the cue that can be found in Europe and the United States. The hegotiations for this series of contests have been in progress for months, and the result was to match each against he other successively the following players:-Francois Ubassy, Maurice Daly, Joseph Dion, Cyrille Dion, John Deery and Afbert Garnier. Ubassy has recently arrived from France, and ap-pearing first at Chicagodin contests with Bessinger tonished the whole, country by the easy manner which he defe ded the Western "star," giving ther players at e all well known, and have each, th the except les of Garnier, borne the honors of e championsh ip sat the four ball game. The present, trurnament is at the three ball ame exclusively, the most finished and scientific game played, and will develop the finest play ever witnes see, in New York. The guerden of victory is the championship of the world, and will be symbolized by a massive silver challenge, sup of extraordinary beauty. This will be symbolized by a massive sliver challenge, cup of extraordinary beauty. This work of art was on exhibition at the Hall last right. It is a hemispheric bowl about a foot ir, d'ameter, resting upon a cruciform base, and 'srntamented with various devices in cues, balls and tables. On one side it bears the inscription, 'Emblem of the Billiard Championship of the World, at the Three Ball Carom Game."

'Fournament held at New York, June, 1873. Preserved by H. W. Collender."

Accerding to the rules governing the tournament he games will be sop coints each; played on a 5170 Collender beyel table. Each player will play with every other player, and the one winning the greatest number of games will be declared the champion of the world at the three-ball carrom game. Size of balls, 2½ inches.

In addition to the championship prize there will be competed for two handsome diamond lockets, the gilt of Chris. O'Connor to the players making respectively the best general average and the largest run. The play will proceed every afternoon and evening during the week. The audience assembled last night was respectable, and the decorum of the assemblage, taking into account the fact that there are favorites at billiards as well as at Jerome Park, was unexceptionable. Within the hall an amphitheatre of seats had been arranged and the gallery was reserved for ladies. There was a large number of well-known gentlemen present, including Recorder Hackett, Sheridan Shook, Mr. Appieton, Joan Morrissey, Manton Marble, Neil Bryant and all the billiard experts of the country. Chicago was represented by a delegation consisting of Messrs. Bessinger, Slosson and Rapp.

of last night were, first, Cyrille Dion vs. John Deery, and Francois Ubassy vs. Maurice Daly, the present four-ball champion. The table was a very elegant piece of workmanship, finished and decorated in gilt, for the occasion. Play commenced at eight o'clock, and as the first pair stepped into the arena they were greeted with applause. Mr. Midor Gayraud acted as umpire, and Robert Wilmarth, a well known Boston "cue," officiated as marker. In

Banking for the Lead

Dion won the choice and scored 6 points off the "spot," Deery then went in for 3 and made a poor miss. It was evident he did not feel at home—it was not "his night," Cyrille in his second inning added seventeen to his score by careful plays, and one capital round the table shot with four cushions. Deery again played for 3 and Dion followed with 12, no brilliant execution being thus far displayed. Then Deery scored I and supped up trying for another. Dion missed a twisting cushion shot, and Deery came to work to score 0. Dion followed the example, and then Deery put up 2. Nothing interesting occurred until the eighth inning, when Dion awoke some enthusiasm by a splendid long shot in the cushion angles, and put 8 to his string. Deery seemed to be working hard, and could not start a run. Cyrille added 7 to his count, and won more applause by a round the table fine shot. Up to the thirteenth inning play was dull, when Dion got to work and put up 71 on his counters by magnificent play and cool nerves. He nursed the balls beautifully along the cushion and the foot of the table, up the left side cushion and half way across the top, and his touch was exquisitely fine. The score now stood—Dion, 142; Deery, 31. The enthusiasm over the favorite was immense. In his fitteenth inning Dion made 24, and missed in each of the next three essayais. It was awill uphill work with Deery, ior, with the exception of 10 in his welfth inning, 5 was the most he made up to has twenty-first, when he made 22. Dion also worked in the single figures five times, and missed three times out of the next eleven innings. In his thirty-first he made 25, the largest run of the evening, and was overwhelmed with applause. Here he played the balls beautifully along the cushion and made soveral admirable swift consocushion shots also, in which the balls tairly flashed as they sprung from one angle to another from the cushions. Th several admirable swift cross-cushion shots also, in which the balls intrly fashed as they sprung from one angle to another from the cushions. This settled the fate of the game. In his thirty-second inning blom missed an easy one, and went out with 5 in the thirty-third. The following shows

Dion-6, 17, 12, 6, 0, 7, 2, 8, 7, 0, 12, 0, 71, 10, 2, 24, 0, 0, 0, 2, 4, 11, 1, 10, 7, 0, 8, 0, 0, 1, 75, 0, 3—500. Average 9 1-11.

Dion—6, 17, 12, 0, 0, 7, 2, 8, 7, 0, 12, 0, 71, 10, 2, 24, 0, 0, 0, 2, 4, 11, 1, 10, 7, 0, 8, 0, 0, 1, 75, 0, 3—500. Average 9 1-11.

Deery—3, 3, 1, 0, 2, 4, 0, 3, 0, 2, 2, 10, 1, 0, 2, 5, 3, 1, 5, 3, 22, 0, 0, 7, 7, 0, 8, 13, 28, 1, 0, 0, 2—125. Average (about) 4½.

In the ten minutes recess which followed Dion was covered with congratulation and Deery took his defeat like a man and a gentleman. He was the first to shake Cyrille by the hand.

The Sennardon.

however, was reserved for the next match, for wonders were expected from Ubassy, who was looked upon as a bilinard wizard. He is forty-five years old, but looks like fifty-five, and there is something very striking about the formation of his head, from the bridge of his nose upward—something suggestive of the intuitive mathematician. His forehead is high, bold and round, and his eyes have a peculiarity penetrating appearance. There was a marked contrast between him and his boyish opponent, young Daiy, baly won in scoring for the lead, and missed. Ubassy followed with 1. Then Daiy came with a ran of 12, and Ubassy made 3. Daly followed his success with 15, and Ubassy made 3. Daly followed his success with 15, and thousy made 1, and then followed some uninteresting play. Daiy was the favorte in affection, but Ubassy had got everybody afraid, and so they put their money on him some. In his nineteenth inning Ubassy made 47 and was immensely applauded, for his play was remarkably first inning, when Daly, amid tremendous entiusiasm, and by exquisite care in "nursing," made 62, the score standing, Daly, 176; Ubassy, 163. This seemed to break Ubassy down and he could not rally, and Daly forged ahead like a hero and was victor in his last four innings; he was so completely unnerved by "the boy." The following is the score:—

Daly—0, 13, 15, 3, 10, 2, 0, 18, 0, 0, 4, 11, 8, 4, 7, 7, 4, 2, 5, 62, 0, 11, 0, 5, 1, 1, 4, 1, 36, 3, 5, 1, 28, 4, 3, 19.

The score:

Daly—0, 13, 15, 3, 10, 2, 0, 18, 0, 0, 4, 11, 8, 4, 7, 7, 4, 2, 5, 62, 0, 11, 0, 5, 1, 1, 4, 1, 36, 3, 5, 1, 28, 4, 3, 19, 1, 1—Total, 300. Average, 7, 9-13. Chassy—4, 3, 1, 2, 19, 13, 10, 0, 1, 1, 0, 17, 0, 22, 0, 8, 16, 7, 47, 0, 1, 17, 0, 0, 6, 5, 17, 3, 3, 8, 28, 6, 1, 0, 0—Total, 254. Average, 6, 13-19. The audience fairly covered Daly with glory. This afternoon Garnier and Joseph Dion play, and to-night Joseph Dion vs. Cyrille Dion, and Ubassy vs. Folin Decry.

EXPLOSION AND FIRE.

A Coal Yard Explodes and Sets a Number of Buildings on Fire-Loss $31,000.

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio, June 23, 1873. "
A coal tar vat exploded about four o'clock this afternoon in the foundry of C. P. Simons & Bros., and before an alarm could be given the building was in flames. The fire spread to the adjoining building, threatening at one time to destroy that portion of the town. At ten P. M., however, it is thought that the fire is fully under control. The following property was destroyed:—Simons & Bros. foundry, loss $12,000, and no insurance; Dollnger, $1,000, no insurance; Rainey & Son, $10,000, no insurance; Rainey & Son, insurance; W. H. Mcllair, dwelling, $2,500, insurance; W. H. Mcllair, dwelling, $2,500, insurance in the Underwriters Agency for $1,000. There are other small losses aggregating $3,300. The total loss is $31,000.

THE GORDON TRAGEDY.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury-A New Motive for the Murders Disclosed. BELFAST, Me., June 28, 1873.

pleted the inquest this afternoon. They find that the father and mother came to their death in consequence of blows inflicted upon their heads and faces with an axe, fracturing their skulls; that the infant was either killed in a like manner, or died from inhaling smoke, heat and fire after the blows were given; that the murders were committed between twelve and three o'clock at night; that fire was kindled in many places, in and upon the bed and the crib in which the little boy was sleeping, and that the door leading to the room was closed. The jurors further say that the blows were indicted by John Drue Gordon with malice aforethought, and that the fire was kindled and the door shut by him for the purpose of causing the bodies of his victims to be consumed and destroyed.

A new motive for the murder—that of revenge—was disclosed by the evidence of a young lady who resides in the vicinity, and to whom Gordon had been paying attention. She had recently received anonymous letters traducing his character, the authorship of which he (Gordon) imputed to his sister-in-law. A few days before the murders were committed he threatened to be "even with her," so expressed, or in words to that effect. It was also proved that on Saturday evening previous to the murders he remarked to his cousin, a young man, "I know one thing—Almond's life or mine is d—d short in this world."

The prisoner heard the result of the inquest without emotion. His examination is expected to take place before a police justice on Wednesday.

Attorney General Field, assisted by R. King Cutler and expostmaster Lowell, represent the State, and Messrs. T. J. Semmes, E. J. Ellis and John H. New appeared for Railey, and Messrs. William M. Randolph C. Castellanos and C. E. Whitney for Cohen. The jury consists of ten negroes and two whites, Governor Kellogg was present as a witness. The case is progressing to-night. The court room is crowded and much interest is manifested. intent to kill William Pitt Kellogg, was com-

THE PHILADELPHIA CHILDREN CASE.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1873. The excitement in regard to the Rosehill tragedy is gradually diminishing. The little girl Maggie Mulvey has improved so rapidly that this afternoon she was playing in the room in which she is kept. There are no new developments in the case. Everything now points to the belief that the children were accidentally locked in the closet.

SINGULAR CASE-PRIGHT. CONVULSIONS. Hydrophobia and Death-The Cause Alleged Violence. Tereza Cherra, a little Italian girl, six years of age, died on Sunday at the residence of her parents, in the rear of 55 Mulberry street, as certified to be by Dr. Wilson from nervous and hysterical eclampia, caused by excessive fright.

In a letter to Dr. Harris, of the Health Board, on the subject, Dr. Wilson says:-"The cause of fright producing convulsions in the child I attribute to an unknown man taking hold of her and taking improper liberties with his hands, as stated to me by the parents and friends, who said she told them of it shortly after its occurrence. When I saw her at ten o'clock last night she appeared to be laboring under extreme fright (of even her own parents) of all who approached her, with a sort of hysterical convulsive movement, shricking at intervals; there was no coma or approach to it, but excessive vigilance insomnia; prescribed for the symptoms and leit, intending to make a finier investigation in the morning, did she live; it is an exceedingly interesting and singular case, and as I may be wrong in my diagnosis (though to the best of my belief I am not), it might be best to investigate it further, although the parents were opposed to such a course (as I suggested it to them). The cause of the convulsions seemed to be somewhat of mental irritation, which I attribute to the plausible story of fright by a strange man. I made no examination of her person, as it seemed impossible to touch her without the most violent convulsive struggles on her part. There were slight signs of hydrophobia, but I excluded that disease for the lack of essential symptoms."

Dr. Harris referred the case to Coroner Kessler taking improper liberties with his hands, as stated l'excluded that disease for the lack of essential symploms."

Dr. Rarris referred the case to Coroner Kessier for further investigation, and Deputy Coroner Leo will make a post-mortem examination on the body. Later in the day Coroner Kessier called at the house, and, against the wishes of the parents, ordered the remains of their child to be sent to the Morgue, but when the driver of the dead wagon called for the body they declined honoring the Coroner's order, barricaded the doors against the driver, and thus retained possession of their unfortunate child's remains, upon which a medical examination will be made at the house.

THE PACIFIC BAILBOAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23, 1873. The Board of Supervisors to-night passed an order granting the Southern Pacific Railroad Company the use of a portion of Louisiana street, along the water front of Mission Bay, for a term of twenty-five years.

J. C. Ainsworth, President of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, has been appointed man-aging director of the Northean Pacine Railroad for this coast.

At a meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners held yesterday atternoon, a resolution was adopted, on motion of Commissioner Gardner, that the subject of sessions should be entrusted to the care of Commissioner Charlick.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Super intendent of Street Cleaning to notify the con-tractor for street cleaning and the representative of James R. Whiting, deceased, to remove a mass "ashes, garbage and rubbish in Twenty-third of "ashes, garbage and rubbish in Twenty-third and Thirty-third streets, east of First avenue, and on adjacent piers," placed there by them, the removal to commence within fifteen days. If they neglect to remove the rubbish the Superintendent is ordered to remove the same, and sue the parties named for the cost of removal.

The Superintendent was also ordered to employ gangs of ten each of colored streetsweepers in the Eighth ward. The pay of street sweepers was fixed at $2 per day frem July 1. Captains of precincts were ordered to report the men of their commands detailed for special duty.

The matter of employing and dismissing police surgeons was referred to Commissioner Charlick with power.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.
SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,
SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC,
SCHENCE'S MANDRAKE PILLS,
are the only Medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Frequently medicines that stop a cough will occasion the death of the patient. They look up the liver, stop the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and, infact, they clog the action of the very organs that caused the cough. circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and, infact, they clog the action or the very organs that caused the cough.

Laver Complaint and Dyspepsia are the causes of two thirds of the cases of Consumption. Many persons complain of a dull pain in the side, constipation, coated tongue, pain in the shoulder blade, feelings of drowsiness and restlessness, the food lying heavily on the stomach, accompanied with acidity and beiching up of wind.

These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver.

Persons so affected, if they take one or two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly checked, will find the stomach and liver clogged, remaining torpid and inactive, and, almost before they are aware, the lungs are a mass of sores and ulcerated, the result of which is death.

Schenck's Fumonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain opium or anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schenck's Scawced Tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gastric juices of the stomach, aids digestion and creates a ravenous appetite.

When the bowels are costive, skin sallow, or the symptoms otherwise of a billous tendency, Echenck's Mandraik Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared only by Northeast corner Sixth and Arch sts., Philadelphia. And are for sale by all druggists and dealers.
